

There appeared to them tongues as of fire,
which parted and came to rest
on each one of them.
-- Acts 2:3

She began ministry work at age 20 by serving on NET Ministries (National Evangelization Teams) and traveling all over the US. After finishing her BA in Theology & Catechetics from Franciscan University of Steubenville, she jumped into various parish ministries: RCIA, K-12 children's catechesis, sacrament prep, summer VBS, Bible Studies, and worked at the diocesan level in evangelization and catechesis for eight years before following her heart back to NE. In 2013, she was diagnosed with melanoma skin cancer plus thyroid cancer – both were remedied with very little follow up treatment. She currently works as a regional Youth Minister for Grant Deanery containing nine small parishes, four priests and six youth groups. She also has a love for singing in the church choir & shares her gift as often as possible. Be still and know that I am God. Psalm 46:10 Reservations required, Contact Teresa at 308-762-1368 or 308-786-3070. SEND OUT YOUR SPIRIT

Last week we heard that, following the Ascension, the disciples, Mary, and other followers of the Lord retreated to the upper room in prayer. This week we hear that, while praying in that room, the Holy Spirit comes upon them. Jesus' post-Resurrection promise, recounted in today's Gospel, is fulfilled: the power of the Holy Spirit comes upon Jesus' followers. Saint Paul tells us that all of us, in some way, are given gifts of the Holy Spirit, gifts that can be used to spread the Good News. Today is one of the Church's greatest festivals. Let us carry the refrain of the responsorial psalm with us throughout the coming week: "Lord, send out your Spirit, and renew the face of the earth!" (Psalm 104:30).
