THE MASTER STORYTELLER

In today's Gospel, Jesus is presented to us as the master storyteller. He loved to use parables as a tool for comparing one thing to something else. In most of his parables, Jesus revealed who God is by comparing God's essence or actions with something familiar to his listeners. In the parable of the mustard seed, Jesus proclaims a marvelous and irrefutable truth. His small band of disciples, as insignificant as they may have felt, would one day produce a mighty kingdom whose growth was initiated by God. The seeds of this kingdom were planted by God and it is God who will harvest the fruit brought forth from those seeds. The extent of the growth of God's kingdom cannot be predicted. We must trust the work of the Master's hand as we, the mustard plant, grow and grow.

Seven Sisters Apostolate is in our Diocese. Bishop Hanefeldt gave his permission and blessing for the apostolate to begin in our Diocese. According to the website, the Seven Sisters Apostolate began in the Diocese of St. Paul, MN. The Apostolate is based around the following structure:

1. The group is comprised of women; however, men can serve as substitutes.
2. One of the "seven sisters" will be designated as the organizer and guide for that group and is called the anchoress.
3. Each woman chooses one day in the week to pray, but the commitment is for that day, not a specific time, so the hour of prayer can be served at any time during that day.
4. The hour is ideally prayed in the presence of the Blessed Sacrament in a chapel or church, but is not restricted to the parish of the priest.
5. Prayers are directed towards the "office of the shepherd" more than the individual. Prayers would be for the pastor of a parish and his mission and needs at that parish. After the "seven sisters" are designated for the pastor, we would then ask for seven more "sisters" to sign up to pray for the Associate Pastor & / or Retired Priests in the Diocese.
6. The Holy Hour would be solely and specifically for the intentions of the priest and praying for his deepening devotion of Mary. The commitment is for one year.

If anyone is interested in being one of the "seven sisters" or would like more information, please contact:
