DIOCESAN APPEAL

RECEIVE • CULTIVATE • SHARE

The 2018 Diocesan Appeal is just around the corner. The new Diocese Appeal logo is a representation of the beautiful landmarks that make up our great diocese. From the beauty of Chimney Rock in the west, to the windmills that run all across our Sandhills, the rivers that flow through our diocese, to our Mother Church the Cathedral of the Nativity of the Blessed Virgin Mary and finally the Holy Spirit that draws us all closer to Christ as One Holy, Catholic and Apostolic church.

Be on the lookout for appeal material in the mail. There are several changes to read all about them. One, is pledge card will be mailed directly back to the Diocese. Please note that all checks need to be made payable to the DIOCESAN APPEAL.

The Office of Faith Formation and Evangelization was established to provide for the Diocese of Grand Island – support, direction, and opportunities for every person to encounter Jesus Christ in their lives and to sustain and deepen that encounter through ongoing formation.

In 2017 5,392 students in our diocese participated in Religious Education programs, 839 students received the Sacrament of Holy Communion, and 622 students were Confirmed. As we serve the Diocese of Grand Island, it is our mission to bring the faithful of the Diocese closer to Christ.

“I think we are hungry for Jesus and for some direction. We are going to integrate spontaneous prayer into our teaching and coaching. Great stuff!” Theology teacher, St. Patrick North Platte, NE

TREASURES FROM OUR TRADITION

Today is the feast of the Forty Martyrs of England and Wales, the first representative body of many Catholics who died for their faith between 1535 and 1679 to be beatified or canonized. Almost all of them died at Tyburn, a place of public execution near today’s Marble Arch in Hyde Park, London. The first to suffer were Carthusian monks who refused to swear an oath supporting Henry VIII as supreme head of the Church in England, and the last was Saint Oliver Plunkett, the Primate Archbishop of Ireland. The method of execution was particularly vile, since the condemned were hanged and their living bodies quartered to be displayed around London as a horrific warning.

Today, the tree-like gallows provides the design of a religious symbol, the canopy over the altar of the martyrs in Tyburn Convent. There, at the heart of the bustling city, a monastic community of women practices contemplative prayer and “spiritual hospitality” in the Benedictine tradition. Oddly, the community is French in origin; it was expelled from France a century ago when France outlawed contemplative monastic life. England, where the laws against Catholicism had been lifted, invited the community in. In gratitude to their new homeland, and in honor of those who gave their lives for the Catholic faith, the nuns came to Tyburn. In the public crypt, coats of arms stand for each of the 350 martyrs. A Web site visit is possible at www.tyburnconvent.org.uk.
