Grand Island Diocesan Library: The Diocesan Resource Library, previously known as Remex, has not only found a new location in Grand Island, but has a new name as well – The Diocesan Library of St. Jerome. The library logo is an image of St. Jerome, who is best known for translating most of the scriptures into Latin, and his commentaries on the gospels. He is the patron saint of biblical scholars, librarians, and students. The library has a wide array of resources which can be found at www.https://gidiocese.booksys.net/opac/gidiocese.org/imdex.html#menuHome For more information, or to create an account, call 308.382.6565 or email library@gidiocese.org.

The West Nebraska Register has united all our parishes with news from across the diocese since 1930. 15,700 papers are produced bi-monthly highlighting local news from your parish plus news from around the world. Your parish news shows how the spirit of faith is growing and inspires others to do likewise. Your gift to the Diocesan Appeal supports this ministry uniting the Body of Christ in our diocese.

"Our mission will always remain the same—to spread the Gospel to the far corners of the diocese…" Mary Parlin, editor

I did not receive update numbers on the appeal from the Diocese. I will have them for next weeks bulletin.

Jesus observed how the crowd put money into the treasury.
Many rich people put in large sums.
A poor widow also came and put in two small coins worth a few cents.

Mark 12:41-42

THE CALL TO DISCIPLESHIP

The core vocation in the Gospel of Mark is the vocation, or call, to discipleship. Today's Gospel passage provides us with one last example of what the vocation to discipleship means, and one example of what it doesn't mean. A destitute widow shows us that discipleship means following Jesus' way of service, even if it requires giving one's livelihood (or life). The scribes show us by their bad example that discipleship should entail a vocation to extend God's care to those who are most in need.

In our reading from the book of Kings another widow and her son are close to death. They too give what little they have, but they are rewarded by Elijah with food enough for a year. And the reading from the Letter to the Hebrews reminds us that Jesus sacrificed his life "to bring salvation to those who eagerly await him" (Hebrews 9:28).

TODAY'S READINGS

First Reading -- The widow of Zarephath had only a handful of flour and a little oil, but made a little cake for Elijah (1 Kings 17:10-16).
Psalm -- Praise the Lord, my soul! (Psalm 146).
Second Reading -- Christ will appear a second time to bring salvation to those who eagerly await him (Hebrews 9:24-28).
Gospel -- This poor widow put in more than all the other contributors (Mark 12:38-44 [41-44]).
