GOD IS COMING TO THE GRAND ISLAND DIOCESE IN A VERY SPECIAL

WAY!!! On the weekend of March 29-31, many of our youth will come together in Grand Island for Going Bananas For Jesus 2019. Here they will have an opportunity to share their enthusiasm, spirit, and love of Jesus with one another as they learn more about Him, themselves, and each other. The team for this event has been preparing for almost a year, and would like to invite each of you in the diocese to join us in prayer that each of the participants will come to know Jesus in a way that will bless their lives and ultimately lead each of them to RISE UP to a more meaningful relationship with God and one another. Please encourage the youth of your parish to participate. Registration is on-line at gidiocese.org/yya/gbfj

The Going Bananas for Jesus team is inviting all adults in the Grand Island area, those who are chaperoning the participants, and anyone else who feels called, to come to the Chapel at Grand Island Central Catholic School to pray. The Blessed Sacrament will be exposed on Friday evening from 6-10 PM and Saturday from 9 AM to 8 PM. This gives a very powerful message of our support for those participating in the event, and helps to fulfill the requirement that we have at least 2 people present with the Blessed Sacrament at all times that it is exposed. We invite you to spend as much or as little time in this special prayer as you wish. We ask that you sign-up for the time you would like to be present with the Blessed Sacrament. You can do this on-line at www.gidiocese.org/yya/gbfj or contact the diocese office at 308-382-6565. Because this is a youth event, all adults will need to meet the Diocesan Safe Environment requirements.

If you have any questions, please contact Michael Kube, Pro-Life Director, cell number 308-390-1605.

MINISTRY—Vicki Colson is in charge of ministry to shut ins. If you want to have communion taken to a loved one or want to assist her in her ministry, please contact Vicki. 308-289-4836. Thanks!

TREASURES FROM OUR TRADITION

The song of the angels, “Holy, Holy, Holy,” resounds from our lips at every Mass. There was a widespread belief in the first religions of the world that God stirred creation into being by a word, a song, a musical note. Music and a sense of God’s presence have always been inseparable. In the liturgy, your voice is invited into this song as the priest names the reasons for our praise. “Heaven and earth are full of your glory,” and we are not passive onlookers, but participants in this glory. Catholic prayer no longer assigns this angelic hymn to a choir, but gives it to you to sing. Even if your voice is thought to be suitable only for a well-insulated shower stall, you are called into this song.

We are born to sing—just listen to a baby testing the full range of newly-discovered vocal abilities. Soon we get shushed and hushed into quiet, and given lots of messages that our voices are unwanted, and that we need to raise our hands in order to be heard. All of that is overturned in liturgy, the place where God waits to hear us come alive in the song of all creation. In heaven, everyone’s in the choir; why not start practicing now?

PLANNING

If you are planning for a year, sow rice.
If you are planning for a decade, plant trees.
If you are planning for a lifetime, educate a person.
